Major observations/Recommendations

1. In the google feedback form, students were asked to rate on the satisfaction with the syllabus coverage during last academic year. 22.2% of the students were rated as excellent and 73% were rated as Good in regard to the way the syllabus was covered in timely manner.
2. Attempts were made every year to keep sufficient number of books in the library as suggested by the different stakeholders of the college. It was found that more than 93.5% of the responded students were satisfied with the library facility of the college and rated as either Good or Excellent.
3. Office work for various purposes during the college days satisfied the students need in respect of timely service delivery and smoothness of the work.
4. Sport facilities of the college have been improved which was reflected in the feedback of the students as 91.5% students were satisfied and rated either good or excellent.
5. During the last academic year, attempts were made to conduct some additional Add-on/certificate courses to meet the demand of the students of the college. They were successfully completed those courses and much satisfied.
6. Majority of the students belongs to backward classes (SC, ST, OBC). Hence, different scholarships and stipends sponsored by both the state and the central government are communicated well in advance among the students to avail those scholarships.
7. Participation in the cultural programmes in the college is satisfactory as reported by the students through their feedback form.

8. More than 80% of the respondents were satisfied with the way courses were conducted last year. Their overall experience with the available courses was satisfactory as 80.50% of them rated either as good or as excellent.
9. It is reflected that various social awareness program organized by the college in the premises or in the community outside were fruitful as more than 93% students rated either as Good or as Excellent.
10. Computer facility still is not sufficient in the college to meet the students need. It needs to be addressed on priority basis for the upcoming session.
