Seminar Report on "Casteism in Ancient and Present"

Date: March 23, 2023

Place: Kalinagar Mahavidyalaya

Time: 12:00 PM onwards

Speaker: Nani Gopal Maiti, Faculty, Department of Sanskrit

Organized by: Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), Kalinagar Mahavidyalaya

Participants: 49

Introduction:

On March 23, 2023, Kalinagar Mahavidyalaya hosted a seminar on the topic of "Casteism in Ancient and Present." This intellectually stimulating event was organized by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC).

Key Highlights:

Inaugural Session: The seminar commenced at 12:00 PM with a warm welcome and introduction by the organizing committee. Nani Gopal Maiti was introduced as the keynote speaker, and the objectives of the seminar were briefly outlined.

Nani Gopal Maiti's Keynote Address: Mr. Maiti delivered an enlightening presentation that delved into the origins of casteism in ancient India. He discussed how the caste system was initially designed to be an occupational division but over time evolved into a hierarchical social structure with its own set of privileges and disadvantages. He also highlighted the interplay of religion and caste and how these dynamics have shaped modern Indian society.

Interactive Discussion: The participants actively engaged in a thought-provoking discussion with Mr. Maiti. Participants raised questions and concerns related to casteism, its historical context, and the challenges faced by marginalized communities. This interactive session provided a deeper understanding of the subject matter.

Closing Remarks:

The seminar on "Casteism in Ancient and Present" at Kalinagar Mahavidyalaya provided a platform for intellectual exchange and deepened the understanding of the caste system in India. Mr. Nani Gopal Maiti's expertise and the active participation of the 49 attendees made this seminar a valuable and enlightening experience. The seminar reinforced the importance of recognizing and addressing caste-based discrimination and the need for more initiatives like this to foster awareness and promote equality in society.
