POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY OF MAHATMA GANDHI

Mahatma Gandhi is regarded as father of the Nation. He is a veteran leader of Indians struggle for Independence. He applied his political philosophy of the first time in South Africa to fight against racism against British rule led by Gandhigi. This ideology was cherished by him throughout his life.

The resource person was Rabiul Islam Gazi a faculty of the political science department of Kalinagar Mahavidyalaya who explained to the students in a lucid maner the ideology of satyagraha (Fight for truth) and ahimsa (non-violence). His strategy of mass mobilization through Fasting non-violent, non cooperation, civil disobedience, that developed against a spirit of unity and urge for freedom among the masses.

In this way the students realized the importance of Gandhian movement in the history of Indian national movement.
