About the College

Kalinagar Mahavidyalaya, 38-year-old only center of higher education located in the midst of the remote riverine rural topography of the Sandeshkhali Island of the Sundarbans inhabited mostly by population belonging to marginal communities. The experience of combating the threat of that global pandemic as elsewhere was a bit different for these islander students not familiar so long with the knitty gritties of the digital world. However fortunately college today has succeeded in producing digital savvy challenge resisting youth of today- the girl students from villages of the island dominating the academic scenario.

About the seminar:

The college is closely associated and integrated with the adjoining village society. As a part of its mission of community development - the college caters to their social needs such as sharing drinking water, the vast greenery for health and recreation, multigym, the multi - purpose Cyclone centre for refuge, health camps and the like. Hence study of the society has become the prime interest of the faculty organizing the present national seminar - an attempt to link academics with the familiar social domain.
