Report on Seminar on National Education Policy 2020

Organized by: Department of History and IQAC, Kalinagar Mahavidyalaya

Date: 28th Feb, 2023

Resource Person: Dr. Uttam Kumar Das, Assistant Professor, Taki Government College, West Bengal

Focus: Higher Education

Introduction:

A significant seminar on the National Education Policy 2020 was organized collaboratively by the Department of History and the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Kalinagar Mahavidyalaya. The seminar aimed to facilitate an in-depth understanding of the National Education Policy 2020, focusing specifically on its implications for higher education. Dr. Uttam Kumar Das, an esteemed Assistant Professor from Taki Government College, West Bengal, served as the resource person for the seminar.

Seminar Activities:

The seminar began with a warm welcome to participants, highlighting the importance of discussing policy reforms. The college principal emphasized the significance of the National Education Policy 2020 and its relevance to higher education institutions.

Dr. Uttam Kumar Das delivered an insightful keynote presentation, providing an overview of the National Education Policy 2020 and its salient features, particularly those related to higher education. He discussed the policy's focus on multidisciplinary education, research, autonomy, and innovative teaching methodologies. Participants engaged in an interactive discussion with Dr. Das, posing questions and seeking clarifications on various aspects of the policy. Participants were divided into small breakout groups to facilitate in-depth discussions on specific aspects of the policy, such as curriculum flexibility, research orientation, and teacher training. A panel of experts, including faculty members and educational administrators, discussed the potential challenges and opportunities presented by the policy. An open forum provided participants with the opportunity to share their insights, concerns, and suggestions related to the National Education Policy 2020.

Outcomes:

Participants gained a comprehensive understanding of the National Education Policy 2020, especially its implications for higher education. Meaningful discussions and panel deliberations enabled participants to critically analyze the policy's strengths, potential shortcomings, and practical implications. The seminar contributed to raising awareness among academic stakeholders about the key reforms introduced by the policy. The open forum generated valuable recommendations and suggestions for effectively implementing policy reforms at the institutional level.

Conclusion:

The seminar on the National Education Policy 2020, organized by the Department of History and IQAC at Kalinagar Mahavidyalaya, provided a platform for in-depth discussions, critical analysis, and informed insights regarding the policy's impact on higher education. Dr. Uttam Kumar Das' keynote presentation and the subsequent interactive sessions fostered a constructive dialogue among participants, facilitating a better understanding of the policy's implications and the role of higher education institutions in its successful implementation. Such seminars play a crucial role in shaping the future of higher education in alignment with national policy objectives.
